TRADE MARK REG.

$860 Five-Passenger Touring Car—Model 83

f. o. b. Holbrook

35 horsepower motor High-tension magneto ignition
Electric starting and lighting Left-hand drive, center control
Tires 33 by 4 inches, non-skid in rear Demountable rims (one extra rim)
Full streamline body Deep divan upholstery

This is the largest four-cylinder Overland that will be produced this year.

THE long, low streamline body is unmarred by angles or projections. From the rounded edge of the radiator to the full curved back, there is not a break in the lines. The hood slopes gently upward and blends into the beautifully curved cowl. The doors are flush, with hinges concealed and handles inside. The fenders are long and sweeping in their curves, with gracefully rounded surfaces. The running boards are clean and free from obstructions, the storage battery concealed, the tire-carriers placed at the rear. The windshield is built-in, and conforms to the curve of the cowl—a part of the car itself, not an apparent afterthought.

The car is superbly finished in rich, deep Brewster green, delicately striped with pure ivory white, and set off in pleasing contrast by black enameled radiator, fenders and running board shield.

Model 83 touring car is a beautiful car. It asks no odds of any car at any price—it is at home in any company.

An exchange says that "Only hope for Faltin is insanity." It looks like Warden Sims and Faltin both "hoped" it and wished it on Wiley Jones, who does some of the attorney generaling for the state. Sic 'em Wiley, don't let 'em pull down the flag entirely—let it hang anyhow.

E. I. Whiting and Gilbert E. Greer, who were on a hunting trip last week arrived home this week.

Style—or Sign Post?

MEN in this town are pretty sure of themselves on matters of style.

No one knows better than they that real style is quiet, subtle, sure of itself. You don't see many of them wearing the sign post sort of apparel that loudly proclaims itself the style.

The Stetson Hat has always been the hat of the critical—and that is reason enough for our featuring it.

The Fall Stetsons are here. We invite your early inspection.
